The Haworth Library Gallery

Haworth Library Gallery space is family friendly. Excessively violent or sexualized images may not be deemed appropriate for display in this location. Artists interested in exhibiting must apply by submitting three images (jpeg) of their artwork. The Library reserves the right to limit the number of works on display.

Artist/Exhibitors responsibilities:

- Artists are responsible for delivery, pickup and hanging their own artwork (under the direction of the curator).
- Two dimensional artwork must arrive with a hanging wire. The library is not equipped for three dimensional artwork.
- Artist must provide a complete numbered list of art which includes –
 - Title
 - Medium used
 - Price (or NFS- if it is not for sale)
 - Measurements (width x height)
- Artwork should be labeled (on the front and back) with name, phone number, title and number on the list.
- Artist should provide a brief biography and a short description of the exhibit to be posted at the library.
- Artwork must remain on exhibit throughout the entirety of the scheduled period (6-8 weeks).

Liability: The library is not responsible for the theft or damage to items in the exhibit, nor does it provide insurance to protect them. Insurance is the sole responsibility of the exhibitor.

Publicity: The library will provide some publicity for the exhibit.

Sales: Artworks for sale can be purchased through the artist. The Haworth Library will be given a 15% commission fee on each sale. All art remains on display until the last day of the exhibit.

I would like to be considered for exhibition and agree to Haworth Library's Exhibit Procedure.
